SUBJECT: Accountability, Procurement and Library Service for Unclassified Foreign and Domestic Bound Books and Periodical Subscriptions

1. Accountability

a. Effective upon completion of the procedure outlined in paragraph 2 below, the Reference Center will be accountable for all unclassified foreign and domestic bound books and periodicals obtained by purchase with the following exceptions:

(1) Documents, including captured documents, channeled to Foreign Documents Branch for exploitation.

(2) Desk dictionaries, Government Manuals, Style Manuals and such publications listed in the CIA Catalog of Office Supplies as expendable items.

(3) Readily available English language periodicals and newspapers which are not designated as "Official Library Copies".

2. Transfer of Accountability

a. Effective upon receipt of this instruction, all Responsible Officers will execute a Library Charge Sheet, Form No. 29-15 (supply available in Services Branch), in quadruplicate listing unclassified bound books and periodical subscriptions in possession of each office. The original and two copies will be forwarded to the Reference Center.

b. When the above transaction is completed, accountability is transferred to the Reference Center. The Accountable Property Officers are authorized to drop unclassified bound books and periodical subscriptions from their stock record accounts by submission of a Report of Inventory Adjustment, Form 36-16.

c. The Reference Center will charge each unclassified bound book and periodical subscription indicated on the Library Charge Sheet to its property control accounts.

d. The Reference Center will then, through informal negotiations with responsible individuals, determine which of the books and periodicals so transferred for accountability will be returned to the library and which will be retained by the responsible individuals on an indefinite loan basis.
